PICK OF THE WEEK

Jamie Ede, of antiquities dealers Charles Ede, has just unveiled his latest collection of Greek and Roman stone sculpture from 400BC to AD300 at 20, Brook Street, London W1 (020-7493 4944).

Many of the 24 pieces come from a collection in France, and have been in private hands long before that.

This is not strictly an exhibition with a closing date, more 'continuing while stocks last'.
